This property is located on McLeod Road and sets up well as either an affordable land hold or rural residential acreage. It is close to the services and charm of Union Bay, providing convenient amenity access while still being separate and private. It boasts a flat to moderately sloping topography, with a single-family dwelling permitted.

Union Bay offers stunning view from the bay - gaze across the Strait of Georgia to Texada Island, and beyond, to Powell River on the Sunshine Coast. Shop at the lively Union Bay Market, a must-see stop over on the Oceanside Route, located just north of McLeod Road on the Old Island Highway.
